Preface

This volume is dedicated entirely to Professor Dorin-Mihail Popescu, from Bucharest University and the "Simion Stoilow" Institute of Mathematics of the Romanian Academy, Bucharest. Part of the articles of this volume were presented by their authors in the International conference Commutative Algebra and Related Topics, honoring the 60^{th} birthday of Professor Dorin Popescu, which has been held at the Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science from Ovidius University, Constantza, between March 29-31, 2007. The conference was organized in cooperation with the "Simion Stoilow" Institute of Mathematics from Bucharest and Romanian Mathematical Society with partial support from the CEEX Program of the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research, contract CEX 05-D11-11/2005 and the Grant 2916/31GR/6.06.2006, CNCSIS 1055. The organizers and the participants are very grateful to all these institutions for support.
