The fourth root of the staggered-fermion determinant: locality via renormalization-group block transformations

Presenter: Yigal Shamir

Y. Shamir

Abstract: Applying renormalization-group block transformations to free staggered fermions in their flavor representation, I show that taking the fourth root of the determinant is consistent with locality. I discuss the generalization of this result to the interacting theory, and describe tests that can be carried out on exising dynamical configuration