Liquid crystal defects of Yang-Mills theory in Landau gauge

Presenter: Maxim Chernodub

Abstract: We discuss topological defects which appear in the Landau gauge of the Yang-Mills theory. We show that the defects share similarities with the structures observed in nematic liquid crystals. A lattice contruction of these defects is provided and their role in the physics of the color confinement is discussed.